

Life Dreams Begin in School

Now and Later

The now dreams of having the latest technology, stylish clothes, or gaming systems and the later dreams of owning a home, vehicles, and traveling to exotic places begin in the classroom.

Attending school every day, on time, is needed to learn critical skills and develop good work habits, leading to a solid job or career.

information gathered from <http://www.attendanceworks.org/>

- Be on time for school
- Attend school all day, every day
- Education is the key to opportunities
- Skills learned in the classroom benefit students in the workforce
